

JMEC Is Internationally Accredited by the World's Largest Education Company

JMEC is a Pearson Assured certified organisation.

Pearson Assured is an independent certification and international quality benchmark for organisations that design and deliver their own learning programmes. The certification is issued by Pearson Education Ltd of the UK and recognises high-quality organisations.

The Pearson Assured certification benchmarks JMEC against rigorous quality criteria provided internationally by Pearson. JMEC has been audited and assured for the quality of the processes on which the design, delivery, and quality assurance of the organisation's business training program is based. The JMEC program is audited by Pearson on an annual basis to ensure that standards are maintained and that the business professionals participating in the program receive high quality training.

Pearson is the world's largest education company, with 40,000 employees in over 70 countries. The group has over 150 years of experience in education and training, and its education businesses combine publishing with the latest learning technology and online support. Its publishing brands include Longman, Penguin Random House, Prentice Hall and Addison-Wesley. Pearson is also the publisher of the Financial Times—one of the world's leading business newspapers, and The Economist.

Pearson is highly regarded for delivering leading-edge solutions to a wide variety of educational institutions, corporations, and other organizations around the world. These range from traditional English educational materials to digital English educational resources incorporating the latest technologies, e-learning resources, electronic dictionaries, and online assessments. Pearson is also involved in curriculum development, human resources training, and the provision of assessment and qualification solutions.

Pearson has a rich educational and literary heritage dating back to 1724 when Thomas Longman founded the publishing house of Longman in London—acquiring the stock of William Taylor, first publisher of the Robinson Crusoe novel.

Pearson is also the UK's largest awarding organisation of academic and vocational qualifications—as well as Pearson Assured certification—educating over 1.7 million learners around the world. Its qualifications and educational awards, such as Edexcel, BTEC and London Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI), are recognized by more than 1,000 universities globally.
