

We are delighted to invite you to join our BeLux meeting discussing the

The new Double Taxation Treaty between Belgium and Japan

Expected impact and practical consequences

The new double tax treaty between Japan and Belgium that was signed on 12 October 2016, entered into force on 19 January 2019 and will apply as from 1 January 2020. This new treaty amends the agreement dating from 1970, and will promote further mutual investments and economic exchanges between Belgium and Japan. The main features and relevant provisions regarding withholding tax rates, permanent establishment, capital gains and mandatory arbitration will be further explained and discussed during this business talk.

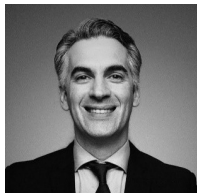

Mr. Wim Eynatten is an International Tax Partner of Deloitte Belgium and is based in the Brussels office. He is a certified Tax Consultant.

Wim has more than 20 years of experience in corporate international tax and combines many years at a Big4 organisation with relevant experience in a Magic Circle law firm.

Wim is a member of Deloitte's Japanese Business Taxation Europe (JBTE) team and leads the Japanese Desk in Belgium. He has many Japanese clients in various industries and assists them with their Belgian domestic and cross-border tax issues as well as Belgian tax compliance.

Wim is Chairman of the Legal & Tax Committee of the Belgian-Japan Association and Chamber of Commerce (BJA) and also a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of BJA. In this capacity he works closely with BJA member companies, the Belgian government, employers, employee associations and all business in Belgium in view of improving the overall climate for doing business in Belgium.

Second speaker, Mr. Brent Van Tassel, is First Secretary and Head of Economic Affairs at the Embassy of the Kingdom of Belgium, whom was present at the signing ceremony of the tax agreement in 2016 at the occasion of the State Visit. He is also an Advisor at the BLCCJ. Before joining the foreign service, he was a corporate lawyer at the Bar of Brussels for more than ten years.
