

Motoko Kuze joined RepRisk in 2022 as Senior ESG Advisor, General Manager Japan.

Before joining RepRisk, Motoko started her career in 2001 at one of Japanese megabanks in Paris. She was in charge of large Japanese Corporates to support their operations in Europe. In 2006, Motoko joined one of most important French bank and served for their subsidiary in asset management and investment banking in Tokyo and Paris to develop their business with Japanese Financial Institutions. In 2016, she joined as Fund Manager in the asset management company which is a part of British financial group and became Senior Market Specialist in 2018 and contributed to the growth of ESG investment in Japan market.