

Arnoud De Meyer

Arnoud De Meyer is a global academic leader with more than 35 years of experience in top international academic institutions in Europe & Asia. Until December 2018, he served as President of Singapore Management University (SMU). Before joining SMU, Arnoud De Meyer was from 2006 until 2010 Director (Dean) of the Judge Business School at the University of Cambridge (UK).

From 1983 until 2006, he was a faculty member at INSEAD and assumed between 1990 & 2006 several management positions, among others as founding dean of INSEAD's campus in Singapore.

Arnoud De Meyer has been an Independent Director of several companies in Belgium, France, Singapore and Australia. Currently he is Independent Director of Viva Energy Pty Ltd (Australia). He is also the chair of the Stewardship Asia Centre (Singapore).

He is an internationally recognised empirical researcher in the areas of R&D and Innovation Management, Manufacturing Strategy and International Management. He published more than 100 academic articles and 12 books. For information on his most recent book "Ecosystem Edge: Sustaining Competitiveness in the Face of Disruption" visit www.ecosystemedge.com